

Second half of april

Since we redefined our project we made the changes necessities to the documentation, we started the ERS and the prototyping, me personally started researching and documenting more because of me no having a computer, now I got one from my mom, but it's more than 10 years old and can only do the basics on it